Dear Sir/Madam,

I firmly believe that all the suburbs of Gungahlin should belong to the same electorate. In general, I find that the distribution of suburbs into a northern, central, and southern electorates would provide the best possible representation for all residents.

Therefore, I support the redistribution of the electoral boundaries as described in <http://elections.act.gov.au/page/view/487/title/2011-redistribution>

Sincerely, Giulio Zambon.
