

Electoral boundaries submission

Submission details

Submission name: ACT Greens Party submission

Submitted by: Michael JAMES

Submission description

The ACT Greens Party supports the broad preservation of existing electoral boundaries and names as they support communities of interest.

To balance electoral numbers, it is entirely appropriate that the whole of Kambah be in Brindabella. For neatness, this would include Tuggeranong District 1.

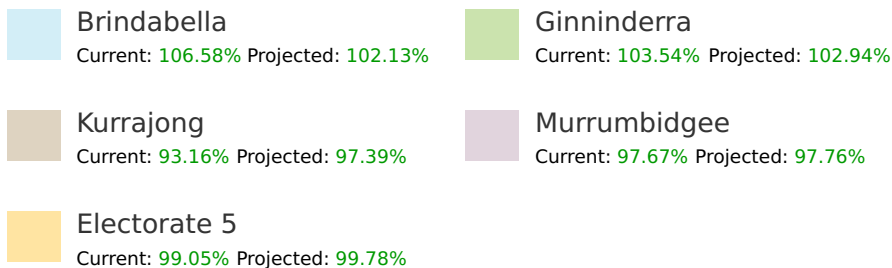

Murrumbidgee has no choice but to extend East into Kurrajong. This is best done by bringing in the communities of Forrest and Red Hill (Also Capital Hill).

If a further extension of the boundary is needed, this could be drawn along Captain Cook Crescent - Jerrabomberra Ave. This avoids making an electoral peninsula of a single suburb.

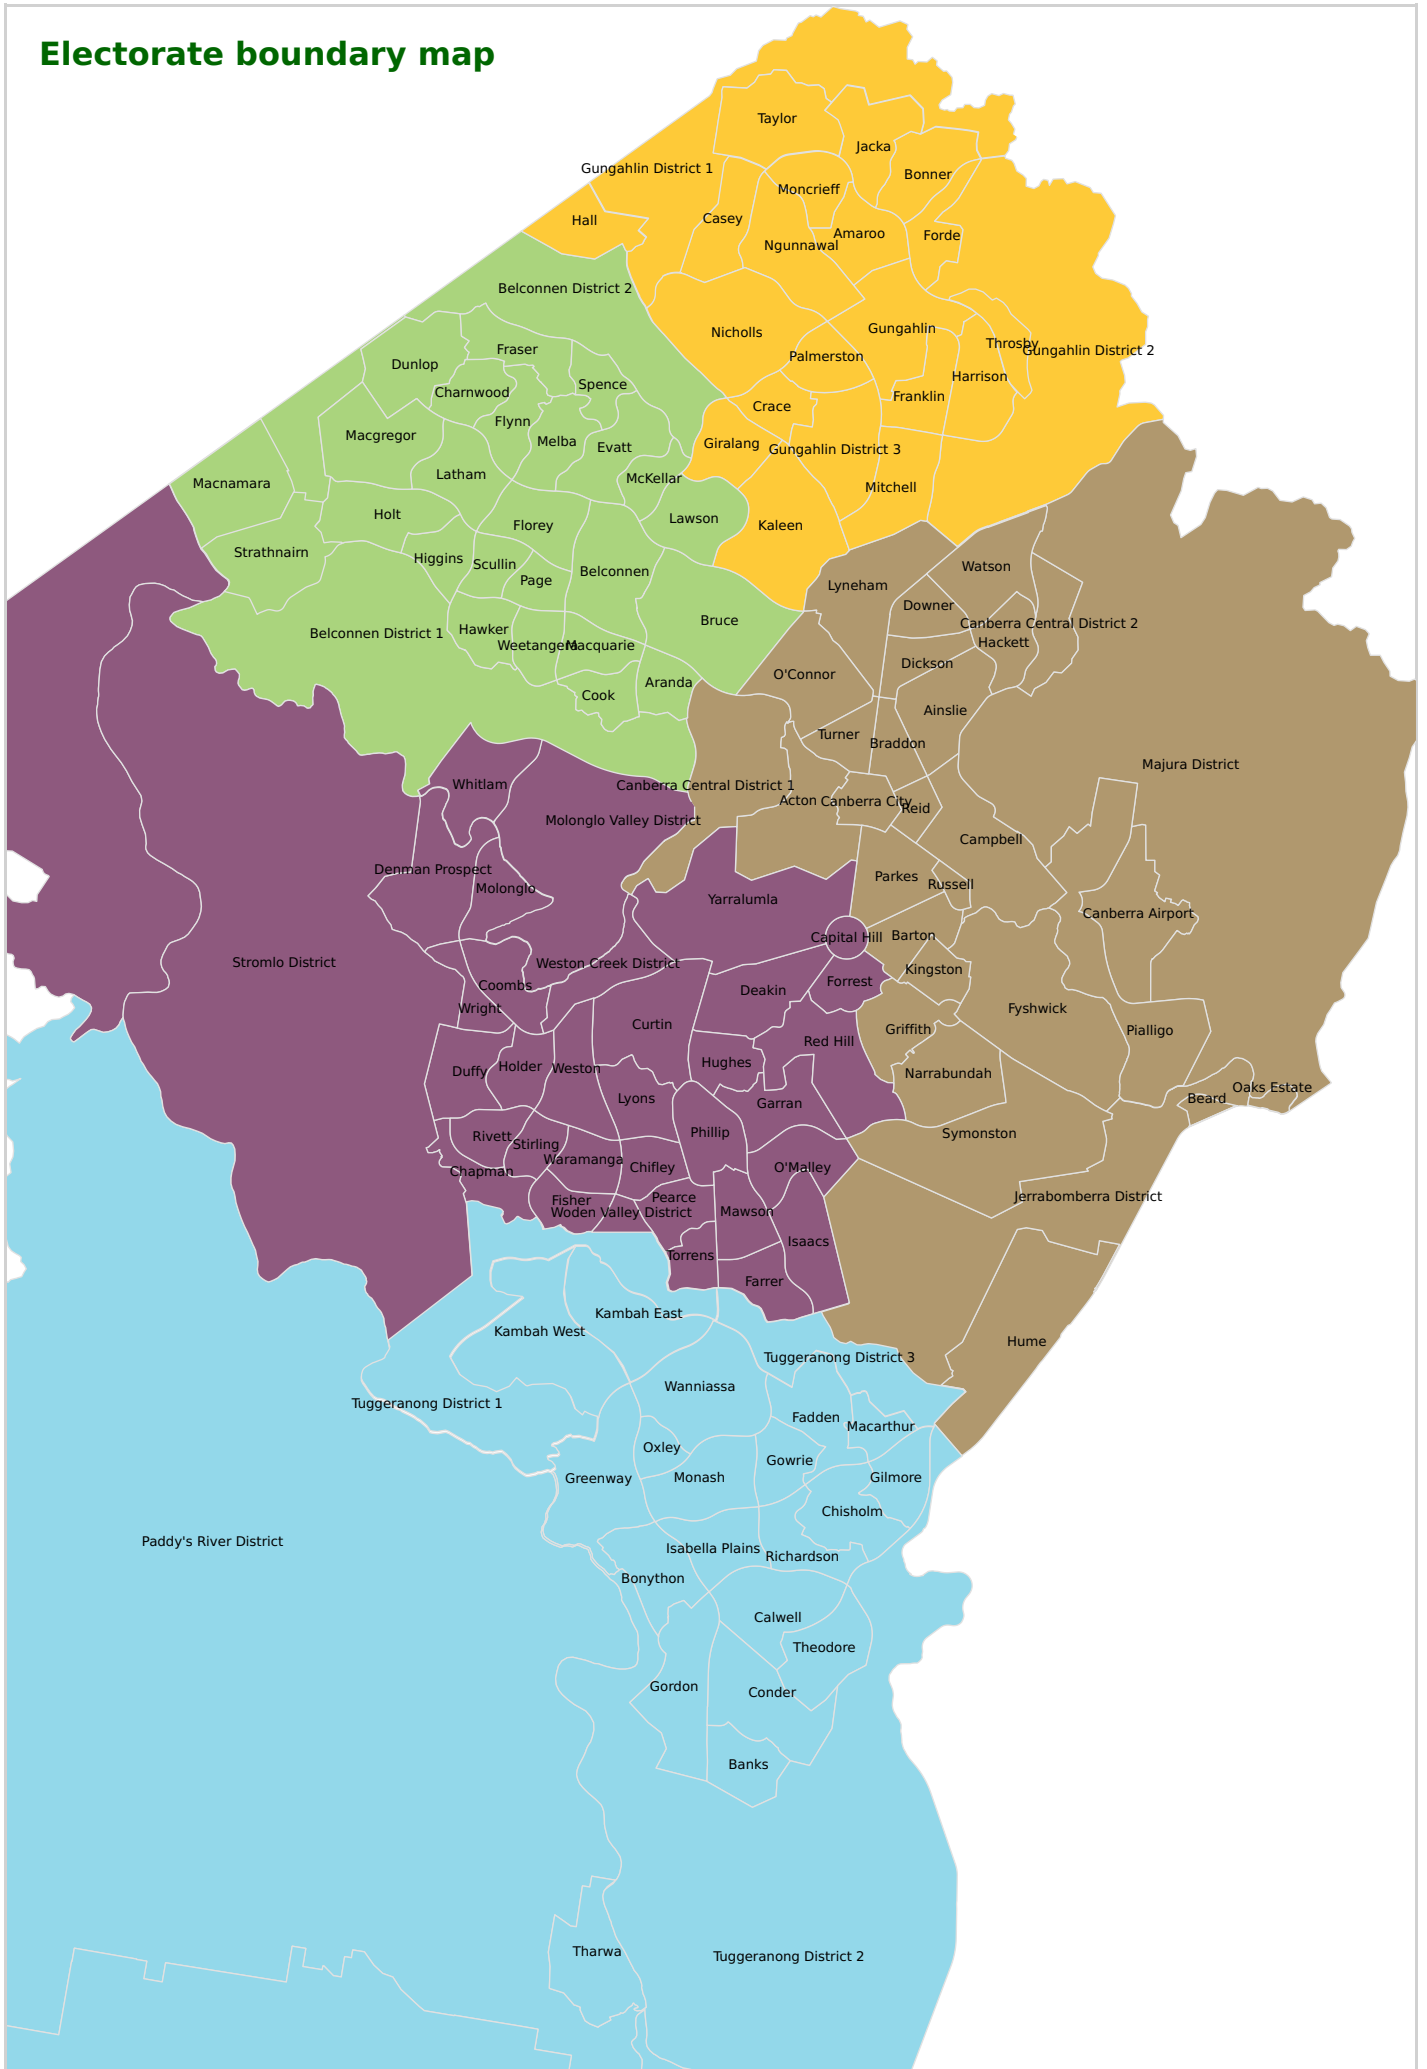

Yerrabi has grown in balance with the ACT and is perfect unchanged.
Ginninderra is also still balanced unchanged, meaning Kurrajong's Northern borders could stay unchanged.

Given the recent report predicting strong growth in North Canberra, any adjustments between the 3 Northern electorates should happen at their 3 way intersection for future flexibility. For closer current balance: Kurrajong could take the Eastern half of Bruce from Ginninderra. Putting the divide along Haydon drive would recognise Canberra University fields as a natural boundary. This East Bruce community has much in common with Kaleen, anticipating that future movement of the Yerrabi boundaries would join them.
